

Appendix D: TCC Contributors

Gaudenzia, Inc., TCC Pilot Test Coordinators and Participants

Gaudenzia, Inc., a large therapeutic community with more than 40 program sites in Pennsylvania and Delaware, organized and provided Master Trainers for a 5-day pilot test of the Therapeutic Community Curriculum (TCC). Ten Gaudenzia staff members participated in the pilot test as trainees. Input from the Gaudenzia trainers and participants was invaluable to the development of the TCC.

Additional Contributors

Allen Bernhardt, M.S.W., CSW, CSAC, provided substantial input to the TCC. We appreciate Mr. Bernhardt's knowledge, experience, and dedication to the therapeutic community model. The TCC was enriched by his contributions.

Sharon L. Gottovi, former Director of Clinical Operations for Second Genesis, Inc., graciously arranged for the authors to visit the Crownsville, Maryland, Second Genesis site on two occasions. Ray Brown, the Director of the site, and his staff members and residents provided valuable perspective and input.
